

Goods / Products which conditionally can be shipped to international destinations.

- Alcoholic drinks and beverages.
- Animal and plant products such as cotton, tea / tea leaves and herbs.
- Medicine and pharmaceuticals can only be shipped with a doctors prescription in English. No psychotropic drugs or medicines requiring temperature-controlled conditions can be shipped.
- Only synthetic furs are allowed
- Industrial diamonds
- Jewelry and watches (except for faux bijoux and faux watches).
- Unaccompanied parcels such as luggage, backpacks, bags, briefcases etc. can only be shipped if unlocked and safely packaged.
- Shipments containing batteries must have the battery's manufacturer MSDS (Material Safety Data Sheet)
- Shipments containing powder and / or liquids which do not have detailed information on container or in unmarked containers, must have manufacture's MSDS (Material Safety Data Sheet).
- Only dry and standardized foodstuff is allowed.
- Paintings, religious icons and statues must have a certificate from the National Gallery or the Byzantine Museum or other governmental institution to be shipped internationally.